

Volleyball Officials Camp

(Held in Conjunction with the Iowa State University Volleyball Team Camp)

When: Sunday, August 1, 8:30 – 1:00 or 1:00 – 5:30

Where: Lied Recreation Center, Iowa State University, Ames, IA

Cost: $15

Clinicians that will be in attendance are Jim Beyer (USAV National Referee, PAVO Central Iowa Board Chair, IIAC Coordinator of Officials), Stuart Dusenberry (13-time state tournament official), Kent Kocour (USAV Junior National Referee, PAVO State Referee, 3-time state volleyball official), Jenni Malsam (12-time state volleyball official, PAVO State Referee), Kris Plueger (18-time state volleyball official), and Joel Oswald (IGHSAU Assistant Director).

This volleyball officiating camp is designed for both veteran and beginning officials looking to improve their skills and advance their volleyball officiating careers. This clinic is not required; it is simply an opportunity to become a better official, network with your officiating colleagues, ask some questions, and maybe even make some new friends. Sessions will be held on proper mechanics, professionalism, communication, teamwork, libero tracking, overlap identification, and ball handling. Additionally, each official will have the opportunity to be observed and evaluated while officiating.

A number of varsity high school volleyball squads are participating in this camp, providing the opportunity to officiate some quality volleyball prior to the regular season, as well as some live action game situations for discussion.

Each official should bring full officials attire (shorts are acceptable) and a positive attitude. Lunch and beverages will be provided.

If you have any questions regarding this camp, please contact Joel Oswald at 515-288-9741 or joel@ighsau.org.

Please fill out the registration form on the following page if interested in attending this camp. The final camp schedule will be determined based on the number of attendees.
