

2015 Girls Basketball Milestones and Top Performances
(Jan. 22 – Jan. 29)

Unity Christian's Kassidy De Jong scored her 1,000th career point in the Knights' 76-48 victory over Sioux Center Jan. 29. De Jong had 22 points in the contest and becomes just the second Unity Christian player to reach the 1,000-point club, joining her older sister Kendra.

Waukee coach Chris Guess won his 250th career game in the Warriors' 50-47 victory over Urbandale Jan. 27.

Cedar Rapids coach Tony Vis won his 300th career game as his Cedar Rapids Kennedy squad defeated Dubuque Senior, 61-37, on Jan. 27.

PCM's Rachel Freland scored her 1,000th career point in the Mustangs' 52-31 victory over CMB Jan. 27. Freland had 19 points in the contest.

West Des Moines Valley's Grace Vander Weide scored a career high 34 points with 15 rebounds in the Tigers' 71-59 victory over Johnston Jan. 23.

North-Linn's Nicole Miller scored a school record 39 points in the Lynx Jan. 23 victory over Bellevue. The senior recorded a triple-double Jan. 27 vs. East Buchanan with 26 points, 12 rebounds and 10 assists.

English Valley's Lauren Miller scored her 1,000th career point in a 44-40 loss to Montezuma Jan. 27.

Interstate-35 sophomore Gracey Griglione scored a school-record 40 points in a 64-38 over Wayne Jan. 27

Davenport North's Jacionna Stowers scored 54 points in an 88-87 overtime loss to Cedar Rapids Washington Jan. 24. The 54 points is a school record and the third highest point output by an Iowan in the five-player era.

Algona Bishop Garrigan broke a school record for a three-pointers made in a contest when they drained 12 treys in an 87-65 victory over West Hancock on Jan. 20. Bailey Marlow tied a school individual record with eight three-point goals in the contest.

Earlham senior Kristen Weber broke Earlham's single game scoring record when she tallied 35 points in a 72-66 loss at Ogden Jan. 23. The old record was 34, set by Jamie Imboden in 2007-08.
